WHY LIVE ON CAMPUS?

Our residential students:

- Develop strong friendships
- Are exposed to a wide range of ideas and cultures
- Have extensive leadership opportunities, including being a Resident Assistant
- Participate in many activities, both during the week and on weekends

EXCEL ACADEMICALLY

Living on campus gives students the support needed to achieve their academic goals. It has been proven that residential students:

- Have higher cumulative GPAs
- Are more likely to graduate in four years
- Have a higher likelihood of attending graduate school

GET INVOLVED

It's easy to make your mark at USJ

From campus clubs and athletic teams to community service opportunities and campus ministry, combined with nearly 300 intramural and fitness classes held throughout the year, USJ offers a wide variety of ways for you to get involved. Plus, as a USJ student, you'll get free admission to the Carol Autorino Center for the Arts and Humanities, the Art Museum, and student-organized events.

Contact the Office of Student Activities and Orientation Programs to find a program that fits your passion or to create your own.

“The thing I like best about living on campus is the friendships I've made. I was involved in the Sophomore Outdoor Adventure Resident program last year and it was such an amazing experience. I made lifelong friends, who I am fortunate enough to live with again this year.”
